

Introduction to Biblical Greek

Exercise: Memorize all the definitions below.

Conjunction: A word used to connect words, phrases, or clauses together.

Preposition: A word that indicates the relationship between two words.

Introduction to Biblical Greek

Exercise: Memorize all the prepositions and conjunctions in John 3:16 in Greek.
Conj = conjunction, Prep = preposition.

For γὰρ gar Conj	God	so	loved	the	world	that ὥστε hōste Conj	He gave	His	only	Son,	so that ἵνα hina Conj	everyone	who believes in εἰς eis Prep	Him	may not	perish	but ἀλλά alla Conj	have	eternal	life.

John 3:16 NRSV

Introduction to Biblical Greek

Exercise: Memorize these forms of the third-person personal pronoun, and their meanings.
These are first declension, masculine pronouns.

	Singular	Plural
Nominative	αὐτὸς / he	αὐτοὶ / they
Accusative	αὐτόν / him	αὐτούς / them
Dative	αὐτῷ / to him	αὐτοῖς / to them
Genitive	αὐτοῦ / his	αὐτῶν / their

Introduction to Biblical Greek

Exercise: Memorize these forms of the first-person personal pronoun, and their meanings.

	Singular	Plural
Nominative	ἐγώ / I	ἡμεῖς / we
Accusative	με / me	ἡμᾶς / us
Dative	μοι / to me	ἡμῖν / to us
Genitive	μου / my	ἡμῶν / our

Introduction to Biblical Greek

Exercise: Memorize these forms of the second-person personal pronoun, and their meanings.

	Singular	Plural
Nominative	σύ / you	ὕμεῖς / you all
Accusative	σε / you	ὕμᾱς / you all
Dative	σοι / to you	ὕμῖν / to you all
Genitive	σου / your(s)	ὕμῶν / your

Introduction to Biblical Greek

Exercise: Memorize the following definitions of the Greek verbal voice.

Active voice: The subject produces the action of the verb.

Passive voice: The subject receives the action of the verb.

Middle voice: The subject produces the action of the verb, but is likewise affected (subject participation, affectedness, or involvement).

Introduction to Biblical Greek

Exercise: Memorize the following definitions of the Greek tenses.

Present: It describes an action that normally occurs in the present.

Future: It describes an action that will occur in the future.

Aorist: For this course, it can be considered as a simple past tense in the indicative mood.